Hello Kate,

Thanks for information about the upcoming staff briefing. I hope to make it, though I'll need to clear a few things on my schedule first. I'll be sure to confirm if I can indeed attend.

Thanks again,
Haley

Good Afternoon

EPA Region 1 will once again be hosting our annual briefing for Congressional Staff in our Boston office on Wednesday, May 16th. The meeting will be a great opportunity for everyone to meet Alex Dunn, our new regional administrator. As in past years, state specific sessions will be held in the afternoon. If you have suggested topics for the morning plenary or state specific afternoon sessions please send me a note with your thoughts.

Please RSVP with your availability and feel free to forward to others in your office that might be interested in participating.

There will be additional details to follow ahead of the briefing.
